Today the Big Day.

Today is the last of the 1920 football season and old maidens will be discarded by both players and coaches alike tonight. Roast turkey and real smokes will be the award along with victory in today's battles to the men who have trained so hard thru the three months of the great college gridiron game. Teams all over the country are completing their schedules this afternoon.

Normals vs. College.

At Emporia the time honored battle between the Normals and the College is on. This annual game is always hard fought regardless of the early season scores made by the Emporia teams. Last year the College defeated the Normals but this year Coach Hargis expects to wipe out the sting of last season.

Baker vs. Ottawa.

Baker and Ottawa universities are playing their annual affair at Baldwin. Early season scores give Baker an edge and also a confidence in the team is apparent among the members of the Baker squad due to the fact that Ottawa has never trimmed Baker on Turkey Day.

Southwestern vs. Pittsburg.

Southwestern plays the Pittsburg Normal team at Pittsburg; both of these teams have been playing poor football and there is little local interest in the result.

Friends vs. Fairmont.

Friends plays Fairmont at Wichita and if Doctor Banbury's Quakers finish in front they are planning to dispute the championship claim of Washburn in the Kansas Conference. Fairmont is stronger this year than last and will probably give the boys from Friends a nice afternoon.

Hays Normals vs. Cooper.

Hays Normal plays Cooper. This should be a walk over for the Hays team. Kansas Wesleyan meets Lindsborg at Bethany and the Swedes ought to win this game with their crowd of rooters who always throng the sidelines.

St. Mary's vs. Doane.

St. Mary's playing great football, meets Doane College. Little is known about the Nebraskaans but they are reported as being very fast and shifty.

Haskell vs. St. Xavier.

The Haskell Indians are playing St. Xavier at Cincinnati. The red men have been going great of late and should have little trouble winning this battle.

Tigers vs. Jayhawkers.

On Rollins field in Columbia today the Tigers and Jayhawkers will renew their ancient strife of the gridiron. Ever since 1908 these two teams have battled against each other with the exception of 1918, when the war and influenza epidemic all over the country compelled the Tigers to cancel their entire schedule.

Kansas university has the best team that has represented the Sunflower college in years and a wonderful fighting spirit has been instilled into the Jayhawk machine by the new Kansas coaches, Dr. Forrest C. Allen and "Scrubby" Laslett, both former Kansas men. Missouri is again coached by Miller and Phelan, the two young men who steered Missouri to a 1919 valley championship.

Kansas has a great set of backs in Bunn, Lomborg and Mandeville. These boys are adepts in the use of the forward pass. Missouri matches this trio with its great captain "Chuck" Lewis, the best blocker in the valley and a wonderful kicker. Fullbright and Lincoln are two other Tiger backfield stars. In the line the Tigers have the most experienced men, all of last year's veterans are in college and playing. Kansas has a line that has been slowly rounding into form but in field they have an end, who will rank with the best in valley football.

It looks like a hard fought battle all the way with brilliant performances on both eleven's, a game between warriors, who have shown their courage in more than one game this season. The team that gets the break should win. The man with the courage and conviction and money to back his conviction probably could leave Columbia tonight with his pockets well lined with the golden fleece of the land. May the best team win.

HOLD FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

Indian Creek Grange Arranges Big Program for Saturday.

The Indian Creek grange will hold a farmers' institute Saturday, according to F. O. Blecha, county farm agent. Speakers will be Judge W. L. Huggins, of the Kansas industrial court; R. C. Obrecht, former professor at the Illinois Agricultural school; Fred B. Caldwell, who owns the world's champion Poland China boar; T. J. Talbot, of the Kansas State Agricultural college, and Charles Scott, president of the grange. A chorus from the Boys' Industrial school and a sextet from the Kansas Industrial and Educational institute will furnish music.

GIVE PAGEANT IN JANUARY.

William Allen White Will Write Prologue for Play.

William Allen White will write the prologue for the historical pageant to be given by the Native Sons Daughters of Kansas in Topeka the last week in January. The state schools that have shown interest in taking part in the pageant are the Kansas State Agricultural college, the Kansas State Normal, the Pittsburg Normal and the Hays Normal. Representatives of the school will meet in Topeka next week with a committee from the Native Sons and Daughters organization.

"NOW-A-DAYS"

says the Good Judge

A man can get a heap more satisfaction from a small chew of this class of tobacco, than he ever could get from a big chew of the old kind.

He finds it costs less, too. The good tobacco taste lasts so much longer he doesn't need to have a fresh chew nearly as often.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
